BV Ballet Victoria

“The nightingale sings a sweet song.
The fields smile with bright flowers.
Birds fly happily through the forest, and young girls dance with joy.”
Veris leta facies from Carmina Burana

BV will be performing Carmina Burana in Creston on Saturday February 22nd, to a sold-out crowd at the Kootenay River Theatre!

Only in Victoria, will one have the chance to experience an event unique in Canada with 140 voice choir, soprano, barytone, counter tenor, two grand piano and five percussionists driving 16 dancers in a passionate interpretation of the work. New costumes, new projections and new choreography to showcase BV's talented artists.

An epic performance to ignite our souls and uplift your spirits.
